

Can you list the 10 D's?
What are they?

Which D do you think you
or your church is already
good at, and which one needs work?

Which D do you
anticipate being the most challenging in the future?
Why? What can be done about that?

What D spoke to you the most? Why this D?

What is the most exciting
thing about the future of this church?

What one thing will
you do differently as a result of Koble?

How will we know if
mission is a priority
in our lives and that of the church?

What do you think
God has been saying
to us about mission?

How has God been
at work in your life or
the church's life this past year?

As you reflect on
the Koble sessions,
what have you learnt
about yourself?

Have you done anything different in your personal missional life as a result of Koble?

Has your perspective on mission changed? If so, how?

Thinking about mission in our church — what should we end, continue or start?

Briefly describe the biggest missional challenge your church faces, if any.

In what ways may the distinctiveness of our buildings impact our mission?

Who are we not reaching? What first steps can we take to change that?

What does a church look like where God is at the centre, and one where God isn't?

Are there any barriers that are getting in the way of becoming a more missional community?
