

What do you think the apostle John means when he said Jesus 'dwelt' among us? What did that look like in the Bible?

What does it mean to 'dwell' somewhere rather than just to live there?

During a typical week, how many people from the wider community enter the church building? How might you dwell with them?

What might need to change in your life or the life of the church so you can dwell more effectively?

Who are we not dwelling with?
Who's missing?

What is the best time you have ever spent with others? What made it so?

What practical ideas do you have to start dwelling or creating spaces where you or the church could dwell with those outside the church?

Where and with whom do you think Jesus would dwell today?

What is the wrong way to dwell?

Why is it important to dwell?

How do we dwell with people we don't like or are different to us?

How could we dwell with our neighbours, at work, school, college, etc, more effectively?

Does the church engage in any activities outside its building? Do they provide ways to dwell? If not, how could they?

What is the role of vulnerability in dwelling with others?

Who is the most hospitable person you have ever met? How did they express their hospitality?

How do we dwell with people who are going through difficult times?