

What is your definition of a disciple?

How could we help our friends become disciples?

Thinking about your discipleship journey: where do you need to 'get started' where do you need to 'grow' and where are you going 'deeper'?

What do we need to unlearn if the goal of evangelism is that of making disciples and not people praying a prayer of commitment?

What is your top tip for being a successful disciple?

When you became a Christian, was the emphasis on making a decision for Jesus, or on beginning a lifelong journey of learning from Jesus? Why does this distinction matter?

How have your friends/ church helped you to continue as a disciple of Jesus?

What have you learned from others about being a disciple?

What are some of the spiritual disciplines that we need practice to stay committed?

What was the last thing you learned as a follower of Jesus?

What aspects of faith do you think you could show others?

How do we help each other overcome sinful practices in a supportive and Christ-like way?

What is the biggest challenge of being a disciple today?

How do we stimulate a culture of followership in our home groups and church community?

What is your favourite Bible passage and why?

What do you most admire about Jesus?