

How easy do you find it to share your faith?

What do most people think about Christianity today?

Do you think the church is still relevant today? Why?

What do you think most people think of when they hear the word 'Church'?

Do you think we still need to talk about sin/salvation with people who do not share our faith yet, or is just being a good friend with someone enough?

How has the world changed? What does this mean for the Church and how people hear or understand the Gospel?

What are some of the challenges and problems people face today? What can the church offer in response to these?

What do you think we need to do differently/ what are some of the barriers to seeing people come to faith?

How did you come to faith, and why do you believe in God?

How do unchurched people first make contact with your church? What happens after?

How many people do you know who have given their lives to Christ in the last year?

What's the biggest evangelistic challenge you/your church faces?

How does your church currently seek to reach people? What impact is it having?

Does your church engage in any community or evangelistic outside of the building?

What opportunities does a changing world offer the church?

How can we become better listeners and learners of the culture around us?